CONFESSION OF FAITH: Heidelberg Catechism Lord's Day 4

9Q. Is not God, then, unjust by requiring in his law, what humanity cannot do?

9A. No; for God created humanity able to keep the law. They however, urged on by the devil, through willful disobedience, robbed themselves and all their descendants of these gifts.

10Q. Will God allow such disobedience and rebellion to go unpunished?

10A. Certainly not: he is terribly angered both by the sin we are born with and by our sins committed since He will punish them in righteous judgement now and in eternity. He has spoken: Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything in the book of the law.

11Q. But isn't God also merciful?

11A. God is indeed merciful, but he is also just. His justice demands that sin, committed against his supreme majesty, be punished with the supreme penalty - eternal punishment of body and soul.
